

Miletos. Calendar of offerings to Apollo Delphinios and other deities

Description: two marble blocks rebuilt into the South wall of the portico of the Hellenistic Delphinion and an anta-block from a medieval Turkish building at Miletos, part of a wall of an archaic building in the North agora of Miletos

Layout: inscribed in columns on a wall of a building. The inscription is neatly planned with shallow lines of writing. Boustrophedon

Letters: Ionic-attic letters

Origin: Miletos, originally set up in an archaic building (maybe a propylon) in the North agora

Dating: 525-500 BC

Findspot: Miletos, North agora

Current location: National Museums in Berlin, Collection of Classical Antiquities, inv. 851,1471
